

ANTICIPATED ADJUNCT POSITIONS Spring 2014

Kean University is a world-class, vibrant and diverse institution offering more than 48 undergraduate and 35 graduate programs. Kean distinguishes itself through excellence in academics, strategic investments in both research and cultural facilities and initiatives and a commitment to the success of every student. Dedicated to preparing students for rewarding careers, lifelong learning and fulfilling lives, Kean offers a broad range of disciplines, the expertise of a diverse and world-savvy faculty and a student-centered learning environment and campus community. Positions are available at the Union campus and at Ocean County College in Toms River, NJ where indicated. Classes begin Tuesday, January 21, 2014.

College of Business and Public Management

School of Criminal Justice and Public Administration – to teach Diversity in Criminal Justice at the Union campus. Master's degree in Criminal Justice or a related field required. Contact Patrick F. McManimon, Coordinator at pmcmanim@kean.edu.

School of Criminal Justice and Public Administration – to teach classes in Law (Substantive Criminal Law; Justice and Police Power and Evidence; Role of Prosecutor) at the Union campus. Courses are scheduled during the day (8:00am - 5:00pm). Juris Doctor is required. Contact Patrick F. McManimon, Coordinator at pmcmanim@kean.edu.

College of Humanities and Social Sciences

School of Social Sciences – to teach Introduction to Social Justice; Social Media; China: A Sociological Perspective; Social Organizations; Sociology of Education; Society and Self; and Work and Careers: A Sociological Approach, at the Union and Ocean campuses. Preference will be given to candidates that have obtained a Ph.D. and have more than two years of experience in a higher education institution. Contact Dr. Julia Nevarez, Coordinator at jnevarez@kean.edu.

College of Education

School of Special Education and Literacy – to teach methods courses in teaching Language Arts for pre-service teacher candidates at the Union campus. Teaching experience and advanced degrees in the field of reading required. Reading Specialist Certification preferred. Contact Dr. Joan Kastner, Executive Director at jkastner@kean.edu.

College of Natural, Applied and Health Sciences

School of Environmental and Sustainability Sciences – to teach a range of courses including Astronomy; Earth Sciences; Geography; Geology; Meteorology; and Sustainability at the Union campus. Contact Dr. Paul Croft, Executive Director at sess@kean.edu.

School of Natural Sciences – to teach Introduction to Biology: Diversity and Interactions to introduce biology majors to the fields of botany and ecology. Course includes three hour lecture/three hour lab per week at the Union campus. Master's degree in a biological science field pertaining to botany or ecology required. Candidates with a Ph.D. in Biology are encouraged to apply. Contact Dr. Daniela Shebitz at dshebitz@kean.edu.

School of Natural Sciences – to teach a range of biology courses, including Plant Biology; Ecology; Anatomy & Physiology; Ornithology; Marine Biology and other related topics. Day and evening opportunities are available at both the Union and Ocean campuses. Contact Dr. Denise Mancarella, Program Coordinator at dmancare@kean.edu.

School of Natural Sciences – to teach General Chemistry and Organic Chemistry at the Union campus. Ph. D. preferred. Contact Dr. Yeung-Gyo Shin at yshin@kean.edu.

Department of Computer Science – to teach a range of computer science and information technology courses, including database systems; assembly language; information systems; advanced object-oriented design and patterns; web programming; network administration; electronic commerce; computer visualization; data mining; and other related topics. Day and evening opportunities are available at the Union campus. Contact Dr. Patricia Morreale, Chair, at kucsdept@kean.edu.

College of Visual and Performing Arts

Robert Busch School of Design – to teach a junior level lecture course in Architectural Lighting Design within the CIDA Accredited Interior Design Program at the Union campus. Applicant should have a minimum of 5 years professional practice experience in interior design or architecture which indicates proficiency in architectural lighting design applications within the built environment. A minimum of a Bachelor's degree in Interior Design, Architecture or a closely related field is required. Contact Professor Linda O'Shea, Program Coordinator at loshea@kean.edu.

Robert Busch School of Design – to teach a junior level studio course in AutoCAD II within the CIDA Accredited Interior Design Program at the Union campus. Applicant should have a minimum of 5 years professional practice experience in interior design or architecture which indicates proficiency in technologies using AutoCAD and Rivet software. A minimum of a Bachelor's degree in Interior Design, Architecture or a closely related field is required. Contact Professor Linda O'Shea, Program Coordinator at loshea@kean.edu.

All positions require a master's degree in a related field and teaching experience unless otherwise indicated; candidates with an ABD, Ed.D., Ph.D. or other acceptable disciplinary doctorate are encouraged to apply. Please send letter of application (indicating availability for day and/or evening) and current resume to the individual at the email address above or mail to: Kean University, 1000 Morris Avenue, Union, NJ 07083. Official transcripts for all degrees and three current letters of recommendation are required prior to the starting date of employment.

Kean University is an EOE/AA Institution